

Adjacent zones overlap at circuit breakers so every fault point is covered by at least one zone.